	 The screenshot shows a confirmation page for Shop.Tools. It includes the company logo, a thank you message, and order details. The order number is 20088, dated February 25, 2023. The total amount is ₹150,000,000,000,000.00, and the payment method is Cash on delivery. The product is a 'pink drop shoulder oversized t shirt - Pink' with a quantity of 1000000000000000. The subtotal and total are both ₹150,000,000,000,000.00.
Expected behavior	The user should have some limit in choosing the quantity of the product, within some realistic limits.
Actual behavior	The user can choose a quantity that is not realistic for the order and delivery. And the total price overflows the page right margin.
